[For the Roundabout.]
Walt Whitman.

Sling on, bold singer of a heart-felt song!
Thy voice of Truth and Harmony is heard
Where'er there be one being 'midst the throng
Whose heart is free, unsullied and unblurred,
By vain conceit, and Forms and Customs wrong—
Where'er there be one soul to catch the word
Dropped from the lips of Nature to each passer-by,
The whisper that each heart holds all in unity. H. H. F.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Ex-Franklin County Girl's Romance.

This war has not been without its romances, notwithstanding the short time it lasted. Among the most pathetic which have come under our observation is one in which a former Franklin county girl is the heroine. Capt. Vernon Johnson, of the Second Missouri Volunteers, was assistant postmaster at his home town of Butler, Mo., when the war broke out. He was engaged to a Miss Batchelor, a daughter of Mr. John B. Batchelor, who lived near the Kentucky Military Institute a number of years since.

When Johnson left for the army he succeeded in having his fiancée appointed to the place in the post-office until he should return.

When the regiment to which he belonged was at Chickamauga Johnson was taken sick with rheumatism, which his physician mistook for typhoid fever, and treated accordingly, aggravating the disease.

When Johnson was brought to Camp Hamilton he was found to be perfectly helpless. His mother and sweetheart came to see him.

So soon as the plucky girl found that, not being his wife, she could not remain at the hospital to nurse her lover, she insisted on being married to him, which was finally done.

Johnson is perfectly helpless, but his bright little wife cheers him up and will not talk about the trouble.

It is hoped that he may pull through, though his physicians are not at all encouraged about the case.

The Chief Burgess, of Milesburg, Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills he ever used in his family during forty years of house keeping. They cure constipation, sick headache and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size but great in results. Tyler & Hemphill.

Distinguished Man Very Ill.

We regret to learn that Judge M. T. Flippin, late Representative from Monroe county, and one of the most highly honored and popular citizens of southeast Kentucky, is lying very ill at his home in Tompkinsville.

Judge Flippin is a polished speaker and an able and scholarly lawyer. He will long be remembered in this city for the eloquent speeches he has delivered in the Legislature.

It is earnestly hoped that he may ultimately recover.

Blizzard Out West.

Sunday and Monday there was quite a heavy storm out west. In Colorado snow fell to some six inches in depth on Sunday. On Monday there was a blizzard in Kansas and contiguous States. By Tuesday morning we had the tail end of it here in the shape of a heavy rain accompanied by sleet, and a decided fall in temperature.

Big Cattle Trade.

The fine little city of Mt. Sterling has always enjoyed a big cattle trade. But the court day sales last Monday rather gets away with any heretofore experienced. There were some 3,500 cattle sold, the price varying from 2 cents for very inferior grades up to $4.65 for export stock.

"Mt. Sterling is a good town and we rejoice in these evidences of good times."

Dr. Miles' Nerve Plasters for Rheumatism.

Farmers' Institutes—Series 1893.

To be convened under the auspices of the Kentucky Bureau of Agriculture, at the courthouse in Richmond, county of Madison, Friday Dec. 2, 1893.

Three sessions will be held during the day. Morning session opens at 10 o'clock; afternoon at 1:30, and evening at 7:30. Stereopticon illustrations on the lectures will be given at the evening session.

LECTURERS.

An able corps of lecturers will be on hand, who will discuss subjects of interest to the farmers from a practical standpoint. Among others will be the following:

Prof. M. A. Seovell, Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, who will talk on the work of the Station and what it is doing for the farmer.

Prof. H. Garman, Entomologist of the Station, who will talk on Insect and Fungus Diseases of Crops.

Prof. Miller, Professor of Geology Kentucky A. & M. College, who will talk on Geology and its relation to Agriculture.

Prof. C. W. Mathews, Professor of Horticulture Kentucky A. & M. College, whose subject will be the Garden and Orchard.

Mr. E. W. Robinson, of Missouri, an extensive breeder and feeder of swine, who will talk on the Care, the Feeding and the Breeding of Swine.

Mr. W. W. Stevens, of the Indiana State Board of Agriculture, who will talk on the fertilization for wheat with clover and leguminous plants, and on other matters pertaining to successful wheat growing.

Mr. M. F. Johnson, President of the State Horticultural Society, will lecture on "The Pleasures, Profit and Possibilities of Fruit Growing in Kentucky."

An attaché of the Office of Road Inquiry, National Department of Agriculture, is expected to be present and will talk on the subject of Highway Improvement, or "Good Roads."

Unavoidable causes may prevent the presence of some of the above named gentlemen, but their places will be supplied wherever possible.

These meetings are educational and are devised for the purpose of bringing the farmers of the communities together for an interchange of ideas for the improvement of methods in agriculture.

No farmer can afford to neglect these meetings. The lecturers are practical men, thoroughly versed in the subjects they discuss, and you will undoubtedly get from them and your neighbor farmers in attendance some suggestions that will be of value in the future.

Come out and take part in the discussions that will follow each lecture. Bring the family. Don't forget the boys. Talk institute to every farmer you meet and get him to promise to come. Remember the date. Hear every lecture. Special invitation to ladies.

LUCAS MOORE,
Commissioner of Agriculture.

Thousands of persons have been cured of piles by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It heals promptly and cures eczema and all skin diseases. It gives immediate relief. Tyler & Hemphill.

Fine Sport.

Mr. Richard Crutcher and Officer Z. T. Thomson went to Anderson county last week on a bird hunt. In three days they killed 183 birds. They say that birds are unusually plentiful this season. They came home Friday night and on Saturday gave a bird dinner to the city officials and police officers, which was hugely enjoyed by all present.

They hope to have another hunt before the season runs out. Already the good results of the short season is seen in the increase of birds.

Indicted.

U. S. Senator M. S. Quay, of Pennsylvania, his son, Richard, and ex-Slate Treasurer Hayward, of Pennsylvania, have been indicted by the grand jury of Philadelphia for conspiring to wreck a bank.

If these charges are the result of political rancor and unfounded, they should be dismissed at once. If, however, these men have done the things charged, they should be convicted and punished. No matter how high or how low a man may be, if he is a thief, he should be punished.

Miraculous Benefit RECEIVED FROM Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

ELI P. BABCOCK, of Avoca, N. Y., a veteran of the 3rd N. Y. Artillery and for thirty years of the Babcock & Munsel Carriage Co., of Auburn, says: "I write to express my gratitude for the miraculous benefit received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I suffered for years, as result of army life, from sciatica which affected my heart in the worst form, my limbs swelled from the ankles up. I bloated until I was unable to button my clothing; had sharp pains about the heart, smothering spells and shortness of breath. For three months I was unable to lie down, and all the sleep I got was in an arm chair. I was treated by the best doctors but gradually grew worse. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it saved my life as if by a miracle."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

A Heap of Coal

That is burned in this town is but half coal and half dirt and slate. If your coal doesn't burn to a good clean ash—if it clinkers and clogs your grate, there is something wrong about it. There is no need of burning that kind of coal. I am ready to sell you "coal that's all coal." If you want slate buy it separate—it's cheaper. Let me have your next order.

MATRIMONIAL.

PRATT-LEWIS—One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was the "Chrysanthemum wedding" which was solemnized at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Lewis, at Flint Hill, Wednesday, November 9, at 7:30 a. m. The contracting parties were Miss Margaret Lewis and Mr. B. E. Pratt, of Vandalla. The ceremony was conducted in an impressive manner by Rev. Latham, of Troy. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The bride looked lovely in a cloth traveling dress and the groom handsome in the conventional black.

The presents were numerous and elegant. Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers, of St. Louis, presented them with a cabinet of gold lined silver, containing 200 pieces, carrying out in design the "Chrysanthemum" idea in moulding and engraving.

A number of handsome silver pieces were given. Also a silver monogram on a dainty silver chrysanthemum clasp, containing $200. The parties were handsomely decorated with English ivy and chrysanthemums.

Her attendants were her charming sister, Miss Jennie Lewis, and Mr. J. Rice, of Vandalla. A sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, and immediately after the happy couple left for their home, Vandalla, where a reception will be given them this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt have a host of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes for their health and happiness. May their future life be one long summer day. — St. Charles Banner-News, Nov. 10th.

Weitzel & O'Donnell,

[For the R. Undaubout.] Day Dreams.

Sweet are the thoughts that nature breathes
Into my listening ear each day;
Sweet are the roses that she wreathes
About a cottage far away.
And sweeter still is she who stands
And, smiling, meets me at the gate;
And sweet the clasp of outstretched hands
At twilight's hour when I am late.
But sweet, above all other things,
Is that deep love forever mine—
That sacred fount from which it springs—
I bow before no other shrine.
I know not where the cottage is,
I know not who the maiden be,
I only know such dreams as this
Have often, often, come to me.

Death of Mrs. Lysander Hord.

One by one the older citizens of this city are passing away. But few who were grown men and women when we were a boy are left.
On Thursday morning at 2 o'clock a. m., Mrs. Anne Hord, wife of Judge Lysander Hord, passed away at the ripe old age of 87 years.
Mrs. Hord's maiden name was Price. She was born and had lived her long and useful life in this city.
She was an unusually intelligent and witty woman, and, in her younger days, was a very handsome one. She was the mother of six children—three sons and three daughters, viz: Mrs. Bettie Brown, of this city; Mr. Edward Hord, of Texas; Mr. Ly-sander and Mr. Upshaw Hord, of Aurora, Ill.; Mrs. Blandina Monroe, of Texas; and Mrs. Hannah Hardin, of this city.
She also had a large number of grand-children and several great grand-children.
For many long years she had been a devoted member of the First Presbyterian Church, from which her funeral took place on yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Mrs. Hord was a universal favorite with everybody who knew her for her genial and companionable disposition, and the void left in the social circle by her death can never be filled.
She had been seriously ill for some weeks, and her death was not unexpected. When the dread hour drew near she was not afraid, for her faith was firm and unshaken in that Savior in whom her trust and confidence had been placed in the long ago, and to whom she carried all her cares and sorrows.
To the aged and lonely companion of her life journey and to her sorrowing children, the sympathy of this whole community is extended.

A Delicate Soldier.

Somerset Reporter: There is an old gentleman in this county who is very uneasy about his son, who is one of Uncle Sam's boys in Cuba. The old gentleman says: "The boy's lungs were weak when he left, and the last letter I had from him said he was throwing up breastworks, and if there are the facts in the case I'm satisfied he's dead, as he didn't have none to spare."

A Freak Pig.

Bourbon News: Hon. C. M. Thomas has upon his farm in this county a seven-months-old shoat, which has seven well developed feet. It has an extra foot on each of the front legs and on the left hind leg. The shoat stands on the four front feet, but does not use its extra hind foot. This brand of pig would be a bonanza to the packer who picks pig's feet.

Your Doctor Knows

Your doctor knows all about foods and medicines. The next time you see him, just ask him what he thinks of of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. We are willing to trust in his answer.

For twenty-five years doctors have prescribed our Emulsion for paleness, weakness, nervous exhaustion, and for all diseases that cause loss in flesh. Its creamy color and its pleasant taste make it especially useful for thin and delicate children.

No other preparation of cod-liver oil is like it. Don't lose time and risk your health by taking something unknown and untried. Keep in mind that SCOTT'S EMULSION has stood the test for a quarter of a century.

See and hear all about it. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

The Frankfort Roundabout

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 26, 1898.

A Mistake.

We see it stated in the papers that the innovation which will be made in the whisky business in this section by the Carlisle Distillery manufacturing "high wines" this season is something unusual for Kentucky, and that there is no other house which does so.

Now this is a big mistake. We know, by our personal inspection, that there are a number of distilleries in the State who have made high wines for years.

For instance there are three distilleries in the Sixth Internal Revenue district that make these goods. Then in the Fifth District there are the Ringby, the West End, John G. Roach, Bernheim Bros., and probably others. In the Second District there is the Mutual Distilling Co., at Uniontown and probably others.

So, while it is something new, in this immediate section, for a distillery to make "high wines," it is not an unusual thing elsewhere in the State.

Soldiers Christmas Gifts.

The transport St. Paul sailed Friday for Manila carrying a cargo of Christmas presents for the soldiers and sailors in the Philippines. Thousands of packages of all sizes and descriptions have reached the quartermaster's department in the last ten days from all parts of the country since it became known that Uncle Sam would act as Santa Claus and convey the gifts free of cost. A number of soldiers drafted to recruit companies now at Manila and 40 nurses sailed. Twenty of the nurses will remain at Honolulu.

Kicked Out.

Senor Rios, the President of the Spanish Peace Commission at Paris, at the joint meeting held on Monday, gave the Spanish reply to our demands in regard to the Philippines, in which he refused to accede to our terms.

In reply the American Commissioners stated that the Spanish would be given until the 28th day of November to accede to our terms, otherwise hostilities will be at once resumed. No further dallying would be permitted.

England Speaks.

Anent the assertion that other European countries would back Spain in her refusal to surrender the Philippines, the London Times, on Monday, is out in an editorial in which occur these significant expressions: "No power will attempt to hinder the transfer of the Philippines. Their loss cannot be great to Spain, who had practically lost the entire archipelago before the United States interfered."

The Times is well understood to represent the government of England.

Cuban Delegates Arrive.

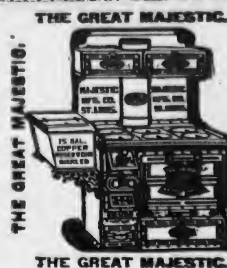

Gen. Garcia and the other Cuban Delegates to the United States have arrived in New York City. Gen. Garcia says there is the very best of feeling among the Cubans towards the United States, and perfect confidence that our government will do what is right and proper in regard to the Cuban affairs.

$20,000,000 the Price.

It is certain that the United States government will not pay Spain exceeding $20,000,000 for the Philippine Islands, or rather for the betterments for which Spain owns legitimate debts, and for which our government, through the Commissioners at Paris, made offer.

To Write for the Press.

Lieut. Hobson, the young hero of the Merrimac incident, at Santiago harbor, has accepted an offer from a magazine to write an article in regard to the matter. He is to receive $6,000 for the article. Pretty good pay for his work.

Special Inducements to Parties Purchasing This Week

President McKinley A Virginia Mason.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—"I am a Virginia Mason," the President is quoted as saying to the delegation from Virginia that called on him to invite him to be present at the burlesque obsequies of George Washington.

After the surprise this remark occasioned had worn off, the President explained how he happened to become a Virginia Mason. It was in 1865, when he was camped in Virginia. He had many friends, and in due course of the year matters were so arranged that Major McKinley was admitted to the Masonic order. He entered through the Lodge at Winchester, the sacred mysteries of the order being revealed to him by Confederates, and Confederates conducting him through the labyrinth of Masonic reasoning. He had always cherished memories of that night in Winchester as it seemed to him, he said, to be the beginning of the union, which was to be culminated later. He might have added which had been culminated in his own administration.

He told the delegation, which was headed by Senator Daniel, that he would promise to be present at the Washington celebration but he would not promise to make an address. The Virginia Masons are making preparations on a very extensive scale for this event. It does not take place until December 11, 1899. They propose to conduct the funeral services over Washington, carrying out in detail the services which were held over President Washington one hundred years ago. The celebration will take place at Mt. Vernon, and, while it will be national in character, it will be under the management of the Masons of the Old Dominion State. The President was very much interested in the program as presented to him, and was especially pleased at the idea of repeating the Masonic burial of the patriot dead.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

From New Zealand.

REEFING, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1898.

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place it beyond the reach of our children.

400 Pretty Homes and Gardens.

How general the use of photography is coming to be adopted by the modern magazine as a means of illustration is shown in the announcement of the Ladies' Home Journal that it is about to publish six new, distinct articles which will include not less than 400 photographs. The idea of the magazine is to present one hundred of the prettiest country homes in America, to encourage artistic architecture; one hundred of the prettiest gardens, to encourage taste in floriculture; seventy churches decorated for festival occasions of all kinds, such as weddings, Christmas and Easter services, etc.; some forty of the prettiest girls' rooms in this country; twenty-five floral porches and vine-clad houses; and the story of the native wild flowers in America, told in seventy-five photographs. Over 5,000 photographers, in every part of the country, were employed by the magazine to get these pictures, and several thousand dollars were paid in prize awards for the best photographs. The choice was made out of over 10,000 photographs received by the magazine.

Attention

Is called to the notice of Mr. E. C. O'Nan, administrator of S. S. Hawkins, deceased. He wishes to settle the estate as quickly as possible.

Low Prices.

The horse sales at Lexington, which commenced on Monday, have been a disappointment, as the prices have ruled so low that they did not even pay the service fees in many cases.

Her Friend.

Edith—He told me I was so interesting and so beautiful.

Julia—And you will trust yourself for life with a man who begins deceiving you even at the commencement of your courtship.—Tit-Bits.

Her Dream.

He had come upon her dozing in a hammock, and when she woke up she accused him of stealing a kiss.

"Well," he said, "I will admit the temptation was too strong to be resisted, I did steal one little kiss." "One!" she exclaimed indignantly, "I counted eight before I woke up."—Chicago Post.

Mollifying Her.

"Didn't you know it was against the law to beg for money?" said the lady to the tramp at the door.

"I wasn't goin' to beg for money, ma'am," was the reply of the humble wanderer.

"It's just as bad to beg for bread."

"I wasn't goin' to beg for bread, ma'am."

"What were you going to beg for, then, pray?"

"Only for one of your pictures, ma'am."—Yonkers Statesman.

In 1887 Mr. Thomas McIntosh, of Allentown, Tenn., had an attack of dysentery which became chronic. "I was treated by the best physicians in East Tennessee without a cure," he says. "Finally I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using about twelve bottles I was cured sound and well. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Creeping Consumption

Do not think for a single moment that consumption will ever strike you a sudden blow. It does not come that way.

It creeps its way along. First, you think it is a little cold; nothing but a little hacking cough; then a little loss in weight; then a harder cough; then the fever and the night sweats.

The suddenness comes when you have a hemorrhage. Better stop the disease while it is yet creeping. You can do it with

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

You first notice that you cough less. The pressure on the chest is lifted. That feeling of suffocation is removed. A cure is hastened by placing one of Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster over the Chest.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The many excellent addresses, earnest prayers and other helpful features of the special meetings held last week in the local Association rooms, were very much appreciated by the young men who attended these "Week of Prayer" services.
Mr. Frank D. Bull spent last Sunday in Lexington as the guest of Secretary D. L. Taylor, of the Railroad Department Y. M. C. A., and in the afternoon sang at the service held in the rooms of the city Association, and subsequently at the meeting for railroad men. He was greeted with appreciative audiences at both Associations.

An earnest talk was given by Captain J. J. Nelson at the Association rally Sunday afternoon. Interesting remarks were also made by Prof. D. H. Goble, of Georgetown.

The Association is indebted to the following friends for recent donations to the Y. M. C. A. Library: Mrs. Wm. Cromwell, Mr. W. G. Chapman, U. S.

Senator Wm. Lindsay. The library now contains about three hundred volumes and is greatly appreciated by the young men.

To-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a praise service will be held in Y. M. C. A. rooms. Special musical program has been arranged. Several members are expected to participate in this service. Come and bring your friends and make this a praise service indeed.

To Meet Here.

Through the exertions of Miss Pauline H. Hardin, State Librarian, the National Librarians' Convention has determined to meet in this city next year.

Miss Hardin deserves credit for having secured the Convention for this city.

Christopher Layton, sr., the Mormon patriarch, who was buried recently in Kaysville, Utah, glorified in the fact that he was the father of sixty-five children. Accidental Shooting.

On Wednesday last Mr. Edgar Branson, a young man living at Thorn Hill, was out near Steedmantown hunting. He had his gun cocked and on his shoulder. He attempted to light a cigarette when the gun slipped, and, in endeavoring to catch it, it was discharged, the load taking effect in his throat and jaw, tearing a big hole.

A young friend by the name of McDaniel, who was with him, picked him up and carried him on his back from the place where he was shot to his home at Thorn Hill—a long distance.

A physician was at once summoned and the necessary surgical aid rendered.

At our last news Branson was slowly sinking, and but little hope of his life being saved.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thursday last was Thanksgiving Day, and was very generally observed in this city.

Services were held at the Christian, First Presbyterian, Episcopal and Catholic Churches, and all were well attended.

The day was an ideal one, being bright, frosty and full of snap.

Nearly every youth who could secure a gun, and many without, took to the woods and, alas for the Molly Cottontails.

In the afternoon nearly every business house in the city was closed in order to give their employes a chance to eat their Thanksgiving turkey at leisure.

Forks of Elkhor.

Winter has finally made its appearance, much to the regret of many.

Misses Mattie Lee and Lizzie Featherston were the guests of their grandmother last week, but have returned to their home, near Lexington.

Misses Luffe and Sallie Lucas and Messrs. Frank Porter and Stuart Lucas visited Mrs. Cannon and family at Oxford, last week.

Mesdames Tom Newman and Kate Mahoney spent last Thursday at Mrs. Llewellyn Holton's.

Mr. D. Morris Brock is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. G. M. Brock and wife.

Miss Sallie Samuels, of Stamping Ground, has been the guest of Miss Annie Smith for the past two weeks.

Mr. James Almy and wife, of Frankfort, are spending several weeks in the country.

Miss Roberta Moore went to Georgetown to spend Thanksgiving with her grandmother.

Mrs. James B. Polakove and Miss Italy Gattowood spent part of last week with Mrs. J. L. Holton.

Born—To Mr. Norman Wilkerson and wife—a boy.

Photographer Robbed.

Mr. Henry G. Mattern, of this city, had a man by the name of W. A. Sapp employed to assist him at his gallery. A few days ago Sapp walked in with a set of photographic instruments worth about $150.

Amusements.

R. N. Stephens' clever romantic drama, "An Enemy to the King," in which E. H. Sothern scored his greatest success, is to be presented at the Capital Opera House Tuesday night, Nov. 29, by a company of exceptional merit, headed by John Griffith. This company was carefully rehearsed and coached at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, before starting on tour, by E. H. Sothern, who was playing there at the time, and comes to this city flushed with the victory of success, honestly won.

"An Enemy to the King" presents a thrilling story of chivalry and adventure, of startling incidents, heroic deeds, brilliant, daring and intense human heart interest. It is framed in a sumptuous setting and picturesque environment. The stage pictures are marvelous in their blended beauty and effectiveness, and action is conveyed through each and every one of them.

Warning.

To warn all citizens against impostors traveling over the country representing themselves as my sons, or agents, and swindling the people.

I have a son, Dr. Rudolph Goldstein, who visits one day in each month, one town, stops at the prominent hotels in the State.

He represents the house, is skillful and honorable in his dealings. The rest are counterfeiters and impostors.

Blanco Resigns.

Capt. Gen. Ramon Blanco, of Cuba, has tendered his resignation to the Cabinet at Madrid, and the same has been accepted. He did not want to stay to see Spain kicked out of Cuba.

Fire Wednesday Night.

An alarm sounding three was rung on Wednesday night, shortly after nine o'clock, from the fire alarm bell, which called the department to the office of Dr. J. B. Hadden, over Weitzel & O'Donnell's store, on Main street. The carpet in front of the grate was found to be on fire. A few buckets of water extinguished the flames with about $74 loss.

Handsomely Entertained.

On the eve of his leave-taking of bachelorhood, popular John R. Sower was royally entertained by the Golden Hour Club, of this city, with a banquet. Mr. Sower has been a member of the club since its organization, in December, 1894.

A swell dinner was served, which consisted of all the substantial and delicacies of the season.

A delightful time was had by all present. All members were present except two, who now reside in another city, and two were prevented from attending by important business engagements.

Foot Ball.

The most lucrose and thrilling game of foot ball of the season was played at Cove Spring Park, on Thursday, by two colored clubs—one from this city and the other from Georgetown. The Frankfort club won by the score of 4 to 0.

Thanksgiving at the Prison.

The Christian Endeavor societies of Louisville, Winchester and Lexington came to this city on Thursday in full force and held a service of thanksgiving in the chapel of the prison.

After the services a thanksgiving dinner was served to the prisoners.

The prisoners were given the whole day as holiday, and enjoyed it fully.

Sentence Commuted.

On Wednesday last Governor Bradley, in compliance with the request of the Judges of the Court of Appeals and a large number of citizens of the State, commuted the sentence of George Portwood, who murdered Richard Perkins, in Lexington (and who was sentenced to hang on the 30th of this month), to imprisonment for life.

Practical Religion.

On Thanksgiving Day the poor were remembered in a practical way, and given cause for thanksgiving by the donation of provisions, &c., at the First Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches.

A collection was also taken up at the Union Service at the Christian Church, and the proceeds will be devoted to relieving the wants of the poor. This is practical religion.

In Memoriam.

To Carl Dixon, late Arsenal Keeper, and son of Lieut. J. K. Dixon, of the Third Kentucky, who departed this life Sunday, Nov. 13th, 1898:

Borne away in the flight of the angels,
Released from the suffering clay,
Back through the Gates eternal,
Mother's boy went home one day.
O'er the trackless waters, dreary,
The dove could find no sod.
And in the evening, storm-tossed,
weary,
Flew back to the Ark of God.

Though loving hands cooled the fevered brow
And nursed life's flickering flame,
His eyes are closed in calm sleep now,
His body out of pain.
Though a link in the chain is broken,
God in his love knows best.
The last sweet smile was a token,
That the loved one was at rest.

O! wish not for the absent back,
He has gone to the land beyond;
No more will pain his body rack,
His hands not thim and wan.
Some day mother's boy will meet her,
O'er on the other shore,
And with angel bands will greet her,
To be parted nevermore.

Borne away in the flight of the angels,
Released from the suffering clay,
Back through the Gates eternal,
Mother's boy went home one day.
O'er the trackless waters, dreary,
The dove could find no sod,
And in the evening, storm-tossed,
weary,
Flew back to the Ark of God.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Texas, has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's new discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store. Regular size 50 cents and $1. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Arrest of J. A. Sebree, a Tobacco Buyer of Owen.

Deputy United States Marshal Con. McCarty last Thursday arrested at Gratz, in Owen county, J. A. Sebree, charged with passing counterfeit half dollars.

It seems that Sebree's arrest has caused a sensation at Owenton, this city and Chincinatti, where he is known as a tobacco buyer. The specific charge against him is that he passed counterfeit half dollars on a river excursion from Gratz to High Bridge last July. The bogus coin is said to have been manufactured by Radder and McCardwell. The latter was held over before United States Commissioner W. G. Chapman, in this city, October 5 last. Radder, it seems, has eluded arrest. He was sent up from this city in the Federal Court about six years ago for counterfeiting, serving his term in the Indiana Prison. South. He was released about a year ago. Counterfeit halves to the amount of $50 have been reported in circulation along the Kentucky river since early in July.

$500 REWARD

We will wager $500 that no bicycle manufacturer in America is producing a High Grade Bicycle equal to our 1898 American Special, or which has been placed a prize of $50 and is offering to the general public, to all alike. Further, that our

BICYCLES AT

$17.50 $22.50 $30.00 $35.00

Are better bicycles than can be bought in America for the same money.

We employ no travelling men, issue no expensive circulars, sell our entire output to the riders for cash only, have no bad debts, therefore, can sell BICYCLES 100 per cent. cheaper than any manufacturer in the United States. We never deceive the public. No one can succeed in so doing. Our bicycles are sent subject to approval without any advance whatever. We expect to sell 15,000 bicycles in 1898 and we only want to make $100,000. We much prefer to sell 10,000 at a profit of $1.00 each, than 1,000 at $10 each. Any prices above ours made by other concerns are made so by extravagant expenses, and don't let anyone convince you that you should pay for extravagance and bad debts of others. Buy of the maker and save your money. SEND FOR CATALOGUE AT ONCE.
